

DENVER®
THE MILE HIGH CITY

City and County of Denver
Parks and Recreation

Jill McGranahan, Director of Marketing and Communications
720-913-0633
303-880-1827 (cell)
jill.mcgranahan@denvergov.org

---

PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Aqua Golf's Ribbon Cutting Ceremony is only part of many exciting projects on the horizon for Southwest Denver

Who: Denver Parks and Recreation and Denver Office of Cultural Affairs

What: Aqua Golf's Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

When: Friday, June 19, 2009 – 2:00 p.m.

Where: Aqua Golf Facility at 501 West Florida Avenue

Why: Denver Parks and Recreation, the Denver Office of Cultural Affairs (DOCA) along with Mayor Hickenlooper and Councilmen Paul Lopez and Chris Nevitt will participate in the ceremonial ribbon-cutting ceremony of Denver's newest golf facility.

Visuals:

- Aqua Golf's six whimsical sculptures in the Aqua Golf driving range lake were created by local sculptor Conor Patrick Hollis, and are part of Denver's Public Art Program. (See www.denvergov.org/publicart for more information.)
- The event will include a friendly tee-off competition between Mayor Hickenlooper and Councilmen Paul Lopez and Nevitt.
- Local summer camp children