Environmental Public Health Policy

The City and County of Denver (CCD) is dedicated to environmental public health stewardship and leadership. CCD commits to environmental public health policies, actions, and programs that:

- ❖ Maximize environmental, social, and economic benefits.
- ❖ Empower, seek input from, partner with, inform, respect, and value individuals, organizations, and communities.
- ❖ Use prevention to reduce environmental health and safety risks and responsibly manage remaining risks.
- ❖ Conserve energy and natural resources through efficient use, reuse and recycling, preference for renewable over non-renewable resources, purchasing, planning and design.
- ❖ Prevent pollution.
- ❖ Promote best management practices.
- ❖ Utilize sound business practices and demonstrate accountability.
- ❖ Meet or exceed all legal requirements and voluntary commitments.
- ❖ Continually improve performance, measure progress, and communicate results to employees and the public.

This policy shall be communicated to all employees, individuals working on behalf of or under the direction of CCD or one of its agencies, and others operating on CCD premises. Each is expected to follow this policy and report any environmental, health, or safety concern to the Mayor's Office or to management of the applicable CCD agency. Managers are expected to take prompt action.

Mayor John W. Hickenlooper
