Multi-Use Trails – Shared Responsibilities

Share the trail. Denver’s trails have been designed for a variety of users, and not only for one group. By following simple, common-sense rules and courtesy, trail use will be safe and enjoyable.

- Right-of-Way
  - Cyclists and in-line skaters must yield to pedestrians. Pedestrians always have the right-of-way.

- Keep To The Right
  - All trail users must keep to the right except when passing or turning left. Slow off the trail before right turns stoppage.

- Ride Appropriately
  - When encountering standard traffic, trails, and other trail users, ride with the right-of-way. Respect the practices of others.

- Merge Correctly
  - When joining traffic, yield to the left and to through traffic at intersections. Pedestrians have the right-of-way. Be aware of bicyclists’ stopping and cornering.

- Dismount As Footed
  - Dismount and walk across roadways or other powered, low-speed lanes. When boarding a pedestrian vehicle in the crosswalk, try to do so.

- Signal To Others
  - Cyclists, when approaching others, should signal a turn or stop to avoid being cut off.

- Be Alert
  - Watch for slippery sections covered by ice, snow, gravel, or silt. Be aware of the trail’s ability to become wet.

- Respect Nature
  - Do not disturb or feed wildlife. Keep your trail clean and free of trash.

- Use Appropriate Trail
  - When entering sections of trail use, the appropriate trail as posted.
