 - 1. Sergeant Examination:Every two years
 - 2. Lieutenant Examination:Every two years
 - 3. Captain Examination:Every two years

Section 2. Examination Announcements.

- A. Examination Announcements for promotion shall be posted in the office of the Commission, and in the human resources office of the branch of service in which the promotion is to be made, at least forty-five (45) days in advance of the date of such examination.

- B. An Examination Announcement shall state the nature of the examination, the pass/fail score(s) if such have been established by the Commission, the point values to be given for the various phases of the examination, and the minimum qualifications, prerequisites, and/or requirements for participation in the examination. An Examination Announcement shall also state the date on which the application period shall open, the date on which the application period shall close, and the approximate date and location of the administration of the examination components.

² The rank of Master Mechanic is filled by promotion from Assistant Master Mechanic. By established practice, only one person holds the rank of Assistant Master Mechanic at any one time, therefore no examination is required.

- C. The Examination Announcement and everything incorporated therein shall serve as the regulations of the examination. The regulations of an examination shall have the same weight and authority as these Rules.

Section 3. Nature of Examinations.

- A. As provided by Charter § 9.3.1 and § 9.3.11(F), the components of all examinations for promotion shall be impartial and competitive and relate only to matters which shall test the qualifications of the persons examined, and shall be based on an examination process announced by the Commission.
- B. The Commission shall determine and state, at the time an examination for promotion is authorized, the nature of the examination which may include the following: (1) written test, (2) oral assessment, (3) practical test, (4) physical ability test, (5) video-based test (6) ascertained merit⁴, (7) seniority in service, (8) assessment center, or (9) any combination of these, and (10) any other test deemed appropriate by the Commission. The Commission shall also determine and specify the point value, if any, which shall be given for each phase of the examination.
- C. The Commission has the authority to determine the minimum qualifications, prerequisites, and requirements necessary to participate in the authorized promotional examination. An individual may not participate in a promotional examination for a position in the Classified Service that the individual currently holds.

Section 4. Administration of Examinations.

- A. Promotional examinations shall be provided and administered consistent with the general provisions regarding examinations contained in Commission Rule 15.
- B. The Commission shall control all examinations, including the content thereof and the provisions for notice, as prescribed in these rules. No classified member of the Denver Fire or Police Departments shall be an examiner or assessor in any promotional examination.

⁴ Case law annotation--The ascertained merit component may include or consist of an evaluation of a candidate's qualifications, background, education, work history, disciplinary record, and experience as long as common criteria in ascertaining merit is employed to satisfy the requirements of the charter that the method of promotion is competitive and impartial. Spickard v. Civil Service Commission, 505 P.2d 31 (Colo. App. 1972).

Section 5. Ascertained Merit.

- A. Ascertained merit will consist of an evaluation of one or more elements of a candidate's personnel record and/or related background qualifications.
- B. The Commission shall state in the official announcement of the examination the point value, if any, which is to be given for the ascertained merit test phase.
- C. The Commission shall state in the official announcement those elements of the candidates' personnel record and/or background that shall be used and evaluated.
- D. Any such evaluation shall utilize common criteria to ensure that the method of examination is competitive and impartial.
- E. Efficiency ratings may be used in the ascertained merit test phase only to the extent that they were issued by the respective department in accordance with a uniform rating system and were subject to an internal appeal process. The Commission may establish a minimum efficiency rating in order for candidates to participate in an examination, regardless whether an efficiency rating is used in determining ascertained merit.

Section 6. Credit For Seniority.⁵

- A. Credit for seniority shall be provided, calculated and have such point value as the Commission shall determine and state in the official announcement of the examination, and as stipulated in this section. Credit for seniority shall be based on the length of continuous service in the rank immediately below the rank to be filled by promotion. Time spent on authorized paid leave, authorized unpaid family medical leave, and military leaves of absence shall be included in the length of continuous service. Time spent on other unpaid leaves of absence and/or on disciplinary suspension without pay, in an aggregate of more than 30 calendar days, shall not be included in the length of continuous service.
- B. Continuous service is defined as the time in rank extending from the date of the classified member's most recent appointment to the rank. However:
 - 1. If as a result of a voluntary demotion a classified member who has been promoted reverts to a rank formerly held, the member's continuous service shall be defined as the sum of:

⁵ Case law annotation(s) - Pursuant to the settlement agreement in F.I.R.E. et al. v. Bach et al., credit for seniority for the position of Fire Lieutenant shall only be given for up to eight (8) years of service within the classified service of the Fire Department. The history of this case is as follows: The case was initially decided in F.I.R.E. et al. v. Bach et al., No. 78-K-119, (D. Colo. Sep. 24, 1981); it was then reversed and remanded in F.I.R.E. et al. v. Bach et al., Nos. 82-1612, 82-1613, 82-1687, (10th Cir. Apr. 3, 1984); and later settled through an Amended Settlement Agreement of 14 August 1987.

- a. the time, prior to the promotion, in the rank formerly held;
 - b. the time in the promotional rank; and
 - c. the time in rank extending from the date of voluntary demotion.
2. If as a result of a disciplinary demotion a classified member who has been promoted reverts to a rank formerly held, the member's continuous service shall be defined as the sum of:
- a. the time, prior to the promotion, in the rank formerly held; and
 - b. the time in rank extending from the date of disciplinary demotion.
3. If a member has been re-employed under the provisions of Charter § 9.4.3 the member shall retain the seniority he/she had at separation. Therefore, the member's continuous service shall be defined as the sum of:
- a. the time in rank (immediately below the rank to be filled by promotion) prior to separation;
 - b. the time in any higher rank prior to separation; and
 - c. the time in rank following re-employment.
- C. For the purpose of calculating credit for seniority for promotion to the rank of Sergeant in the Police Department, the examination announcement for the Sergeant rank shall provide that credit for seniority shall ultimately be based in a candidate's date of original appointment to the rank of Police Officer, irrespective of original appointment as a civilian, cadet, certified peace officer, or Reserve Police Officer. No candidate for promotion to Sergeant shall be eligible to receive more credit for seniority than could be received by any other candidate who did receive original appointment, or who would have received original appointment, on the same date in the same calendar year (with no reductions in length of service), irrespective of the Charter provision under which the original appointment was received.
- D. Points for seniority, if any, shall only be added to the total examination score for those candidates who have successfully completed/passed all phases of the examination.

Section 7. No Award of Veteran Preference Points.

No veteran preference points shall be given in promotional examinations, pursuant to Article XII, Section 15 of the Colorado State Constitution.

Section 8. Lines of Promotion.

- A. The lines of promotion for the Fire and Police Departments for classifications/ranks that require an examination by the Civil Service Commission, together with the length of service required in rank and/or grade before a member is permitted to participate in a promotional examination are listed in Schedule I and Schedule II of this section. A candidate's length of service (used to determine eligibility to participate in a promotional examination) shall be calculated as the Commission shall determine and state in the official announcement of the examination.

- B. With adequate notice to candidates, the Commission may establish additional prerequisites, beyond any minimum length of service, for participation in a promotional examination.
