Who I give to and why

I give to the International Rescue Committee because there have never been more displaced people in the world. Both the root causes and immediate concerns of refugees need attention.

Why I give through the DECC

Workplace giving is an easy and affordable way to make a difference for those in need locally and across the globe.

Brian's charity of choice, the International Rescue Committee, responds to humanitarian crises around the world, delivering aid that saves lives while paving the way for long-term recovery.
