Who I give to and why

I give to KidsGiving365 (formerly known as Santa's Elves). I've partnered with them to help the young people in the Sun Valley community that my recreation facility serves. The program has grown from providing holidays gifts for 75 kids to (in 2016) over 2,000. KidsGiving365 is devoted to developing sustainable relationships, and inspiring and serving our youth.

Why I give through the DECC

I choose to give through the DECC for convenience and personal gratification. The money comes directly out of my paycheck so I don't have to write checks or go online to donate, and I have the satisfaction of knowing my contributions will help others in need.

James's charity of choice, KidsGiving365, enables kids to help other kids through community service, volunteering and year-round giving.
