Who I give to and why

My grandson is a heart recipient. Families of transplant patients often find it really challenging once they leave the safe space of the hospital. Gabriel's Gift is a portal to information these families need.

Why I give through the DECC

One word: convenience. I also feel like giving benefits the donor as well as the nonprofit.

Lydia's charity of choice, Gabriel's Gift, helps families of children with congenital heart defects cope financially, emotionally and spiritually.
