Who I give to and why

I give to the Denver Animal Foundation, which fundraises for Denver Animal Protection. Donations benefit animal foster care, emergency medical care and community outreach. The programs help pets—and people—in our community. If my gift can help even one animal, I know that I've made a difference.

Why I give through the DECC

I like giving through the DECC because I can give more money to the charities I love! By making a monthly gift, I can increase my annual support and make a bigger impact.

Madeleine's charity of choice, the Denver Animal Foundation, supports the work of Denver Animal Protection in providing animal care and protection services for all of Denver County.
