Who I give to

I give to the Food For Thought Denver because they are an all-volunteer run organization and they could use a more regular source of income to support their mission. Food for Thought Denver targets schools where 90% or more of the students are eligible for free and reduced lunch programs. On Friday afternoons, it sends kids at these schools home with enough food to feed a family of four two meals. They are an amazing nonprofit.

Why I give through the DECC

Food For Thought Denver is an all-volunteer run organization and the donations that I make through the DECC provides them with a valuable, regular source of income to support their mission.
