Who I give to

I give to New Era Colorado. They do impactful, important work registering young voters across the state. They work to retain folks as lifelong voters which strengthens our democracy. I have volunteered with them in the past getting people to polls and registering voters and know firsthand how effective their approach is.

Why I give through the DECC

The DECC builds generosity and comradery. Many people intend to give charitably but miss the opportunity to do so without campaigns like the DECC. Everyone giving a small amount as part of this campaign adds up to a big difference.
