DENVER EMPLOYEES CHARITABLE CAMPAIGN

Who I give to

I give to Work Options for Women (WOW). WOW provides a skill set to participants that allows for success in both employment and life. They recently added a Mobile Culinary Classroom to expand their reach to participants who are coming out of incarceration and currently living in halfway houses in the Denver area. This program has friendly staff that interacts with each person on an individual level. I feel confident when I refer a customer to this program because I know they will be treated with dignity and respect.

Why I give through the DECC

I'm empowered to give and find value in changing the trajectory of people's lives.
