

Natacha Hager Police Department Team DECC

Who I give to

I give and volunteer with the USO Denver. My father served as a Marine and I have other relatives that are active duty Marines. I understand the sacrifices that are made, the heartache that may be experienced because I have lived that life. The USO provides vital places for servicemembers and their families to relax and lets them know that America values their service.

Why I give through the DECC

I was raised in that we take care of our own and that is how I see the City and County of Denver. We are family. We should support one another and help each other. That is why I choose to give and volunteer. The DECC builds that feeling of support and family and makes it easy to give.
