

Frequently Asked Questions

Is DEVO only for employees of the City and County of Denver?

- No! While we serve as a resource for City employees to connect with charitable organizations and events in Denver, we welcome anyone and everyone interested in helping.

How can DEVO help me?

- There are many ways we strive to connect volunteers with organizations in need of assistance. Simply fill out a Volunteer Application, found under the “contact us” tab at www.denvergov.org/DEVO, and let us know where your interests lie. Whether you want to tutor students, get outside and contribute to our city parks, or help animals we will find your niche. We will connect you with an organization, suggest events, and help ensure it’s a great experience for all involved.

Is there a minimum time requirement I must commit to?

- Every organization has different requirements. If you want to volunteer 16 hours per month or sign up for one-time events we can find the spot for you! We know everyone’s schedule can be hectic but we will help you find something that fits into your schedule.

Are there physical requirements I must qualify for in order to help?

- There is always a way for everyone to help! Volunteering does not mean strenuous physical labor (unless of course that’s what you’re going for). Just to name a few options: you can help collect donations, wrap gifts, serve food to the hungry, help us with administrative tasks, and organize events.

How do I get my department involved?

- A wonderful way for co-workers to unite and work towards helping our community is by volunteering together. Simply fill out a Group Volunteer Application form, hang up a sign-up sheet in your office (approved by your supervisor), and send out an e-mail to inform your co-workers of upcoming volunteer opportunities. We are happy to present to your supervisor or group of co-workers to tell them what DEVO is all about! Contact us at DEVO@denvergov.org and we will help guide you through the process.
