TAX GUIDE

Topic No. 13

CONSIGNMENT SALES

Any retailer/consignee who takes taxable tangible personal property, products, or services on consignment is required to obtain a sales tax license and must charge and collect Denver's sales tax on the full price from the purchaser when the items are sold at retail.

EXAMPLES

1. John has a retail outlet for goods made by local artisans. The craftspeople place their goods on consignment with John to be sold to the general public. As the retailer, John must collect sales tax on the sales of the consigned goods.
2. Charlie operates an auction house and takes goods on consignment from businesses seeking to dispose of outdated or overstocked items, estates needing to liquidate assets such as furniture, etc., or anyone with items they want to sell. As the retailer, Charlie must collect sales tax on the sales of the consigned goods.
