FILING PERIODS

SALES TAX, USE TAX, AND LODGER'S TAX RETURNS

MONTHLY filing is required if the average monthly tax liability for the previous six months exceeds $300. The return is due on the 20th day of the month following the taxable month.

QUARTERLY filing is allowed if the monthly tax liability for the preceding six months averages $300 or less. Due dates are April 20, July 20, October 20 and January 20.

ANNUAL filing is allowed if the monthly tax liability for the preceding six months averages $15 or less. The return is due on the 20th day of January following the taxable year. If the due date falls on a holiday or weekend, the return will be considered due on the next business day.

Note: All marijuana businesses, bars, liquor stores, restaurants, caterers, and street vendors are required to file monthly tax returns.

EXAMPLE

XYZ Stores, a national retail department store chain, has recently closed two stores in Denver. Their average monthly Denver sales tax remittance dropped from $9,000 to $200 over the last six months because they are currently collecting Denver sales tax only on deliveries into Denver from their suburban store. XYZ could have their filing period changed from monthly to quarterly.
