- ENTRY-LEVEL

Felisa Urdiales stated there was good diversity amongst the laterals who have applied. There was some discussion regarding a conflict of interest with Dr. Nicoletti and the Commerce City Police Applicants. It was determined to be unfounded by the Commission.

Police Chief Robert White made an appearance and stated the Police Department budget had allocated up to 100 recruits to be hired in 2014. The Chief thanked everyone for all their hard work and stated he appreciates all that is being done to meet the hiring needs.

Earl Peterson stated he and Don Ronyak, Recruitment Manager for the Department of Safety would continue working to ensure the Denver Police Cadets take the Denver Police exam. As of now, some Cadets are still too young to apply and they are hopeful the Cadets will test in September.

ISSUE #3: DIVERSITY

Commander Ron Thomas stated he talked with Technician Eranda Piyasena and was comfortable with the recruiting office and tutoring program and stated that relationship will continue. Don Ronyak stated they are currently recruiting at Denver Public Schools and they attend different events. Don thanked Felisa Urdiales for reviewing 300 Cadet applicants. Commander Thomas stated as a former Cadet, he felt it was a struggle to recruit African American applicants. He believes speaking with parents rather than the student would be a good approach, familial support goes a long way. He also suggested speaking to students who are currently involved with sports. Commander Thomas stated Executive Director Stephanie O'Malley has concerns about the lack of recruitment of African Americans as well and she would be interested in hearing more about different recruiting methods.

ISSUE #4: RECRUITMENT UPDATES

Technician Piyasena stated Commander Perry's mentoring group tested well. Officers will be handing out new recruitment cards, which have been updated with a new logo. Recruitment would be going out to UMC and they were recently at Regis and plan to be at DU on April 12, 2014 to hand out information. At that event, Sgt Cynthia Hill will address applicants and share her story as incentive to apply.
