10. Call for inspections and obtain a Certificate of Occupancy
A building or zoning inspection may be required prior to opening your business.
FOR MORE INFORMATION:
www.denvergov.org/developmentservices

11. Open your business!
By completing these steps, you have built a strong foundation that, along with hard work and a little luck, will enable your business to thrive in the Mile High City!

Denver's Office of Economic Development offers a diverse set of programs and services to help new and expanding businesses here. From small business financing to employee recruitment, Enterprise Zone tax credits and other tax credits based on your investment and growth, and a wide range of referrals to a range of community resources, we are ready to help ensure your success. Learn more at www.denvergov.org/oed, click on "Build Your Business."

Denver has a public, free, community space that is designed just to serve the unique needs of aspiring and existing entrepreneurs. It is The Commons on Champa at 1245 Champa St. Learn more about their events and services at www.thecommons.co.

OED professionals maintain office hours for free advisory sessions, either walk in or by appointment. A wealth of other partners, including state and federal government offices as well as nonprofit organizations, offer free counseling and training as well.

12. Celebrate success
Good luck with your new business!
Welcome to Denver!

Thank you for bringing your business here!
To help get your new business up and running and to expedite the city’s approval process, the Offices of Economic Development, Excise and Licensing and Development Services have prepared this checklist to help guide you through the various city agencies.

Since it is the responsibility of each new business to complete the needed approvals before it can open, this checklist will help you avoid unnecessary delays. The requirements may vary according to the type of business you intend to start or expand, but the following steps are a good guide to what you will encounter.

1. Plan your business
   - Pick/develop a marketable business concept
   - Identify target market, product, or service customer group
   - Determine business location
   - Develop marketing strategy
   - Identify operational needs
   - Estimate project start
   - Research the competition
   - Identify operational needs
   - Develop marketing strategy
   - Determine business location

2. Select a location and determine zoning and site permitting
   - When selecting a site, it is important to make sure the location is appropriate for your business. Among the factors to consider are the type of building, location, zoning and available parking.
   - Consider working with a licensed contractor with expertise in these areas.

   FOR MORE INFORMATION:
   - Development Services
     201 W. Colfax Ave., Suite 203
     www.denvergov.org/developmentservices
     720-865-2790

3. Register your business name and structure
   - Search for business name availability and register your business name and structure at:
     - Colorado Secretary of State
       1700 Broadway, Suite 200
       Denver, 80202
       www.sos.state.co.us
       303-894-2200

   - The Commons on Champa
     1700 Broadway, Suite 200
     Denver, 80202
     www.denvergov.org/developmentservices
     720-865-2790

4. Register with tax authorities on the city, state, and federal level
   - Taxes that may be levied on businesses include income tax, employment tax, sales tax and city business taxes.
   - Register with Denver’s Treasury Division, Colorado Department of Revenue and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service to obtain the necessary tax information.

   - City: To register for city taxes, file returns and manage tax accounts, visit Denver’s eBiz Tax Center at www.denvergov.org/ebitzax.

   - Denver Treasury Division
     201 W. Colfax Ave., Atrium
     720-913-9400

   - State: For state taxes and a Sales Tax ID number, visit the Colorado Business Express website, www.colorado.gov/cbe.

   - Federal: All forms of structure, except sole proprietorships with no employees, must obtain a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN), which is also your federal tax ID number.

   - For more federal tax information:
     - Internal Revenue Service
     - 800-829-1040
     - www.irs.gov

5. Employer responsibilities
   - A business with employees must register as an employer; pay additional taxes; withhold, match and submit employee withholdings; obtain workers’ compensation insurance; and follow other employee eligibility regulations. The Colorado Business Resource Guide includes a helpful section on this topic (www.colorado.gov/cbe) on “Resources”.

   - Unemployment insurance requirement: Visit the Colorado Business Express website, www.colorado.gov/cbe, to register your business with the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment in order to establish an unemployment insurance account.

   - Once you are ready to begin hiring a staff for your business, the Denver Office of Economic Development’s Workforce Development Services team can help you find and prescreen qualified applicants at no cost. To learn more about workforce services for employers, call 720-913-1999 or go to www.denvergov.org/workforce.

6. Get a zoning permit
   - A zoning permit is always required prior to receiving a building permit for a renovation (if the use in a building or commercial space is different from the previous use or if zoning approval is required for any other permit or license). A pre-application meeting is recommended.

   FOR MORE INFORMATION:
   - Development Services
     201 W. Colfax Ave., Suite 203
     www.denvergov.org/developmentservices
     720-865-3000 (voicemail for zoning questions)

7. Determine your business activity type and obtain any permits or licenses
   - City license permits: To determine whether your business requires special permits or licenses, contact:
     - Denver Excise and Licensing
       201 W. Colfax, Suite 206
       Dial 3-1-1
       www.denvergov.org/businesslicensing

   - State license permits: In addition to city permits and licenses, check with the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies regarding any state requirements.
     - Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies
       1580 Broadway, Suite 1350
       303-894-7800
       www.colorado.gov/dora

8. Get other approvals
   - Contact Development Services to find out about:
     - A Wastewater Management sewer use and drainage permit may be required, depending on the quantity or type of wastewater involved with your business.
     - Department of Environmental Health approval is required when food is involved in the business or daycare, or for swimming pools and spas.
     - Fire Department approval may also be required.

9. Obtain a building permit (if required)
   - A building permit is required if:
     - There is a change of occupancy as defined in the Denver Building Code.
     - If you elect to do interior changes. All Elective work must be done to current building code.
     - NOTE: If there is a change of occupancy, ADA compliance is required, which may require changes to the building.

   FOR MORE INFORMATION:
   - www.denvergov.org/developmentservices

RESOURCES:
- The Commons on Champa
  www.commoms.co
- Colorado Business Resource Guide
  www.colorado.bdc.org, click “resources”
- Denver Small Business Development Center
  www.colorado.bdc.org
- Counselor to America’s Small Business (SCORE)
  www.scoredenver.org
- Colorado Secretary of State
  1700 Broadway, Suite 200
  Denver, 80202
  www.sos.state.co.us
  303-894-2200
- Colorado Treasurer
  201 W. Colfax Ave., Suite 203
  www.denvergov.org/developmentservices
  720-865-2790