DIVISION 11.7 ACCESSORY USE LIMITATIONS AND STANDARDS

The Summary Use and Parking Tables in Articles 3 through 9 reference any limitations and standards applicable to allowed primary, accessory, or temporary uses. This Division contains general standards applicable to all accessory uses across multiple zone districts and neighborhood contexts.

SECTION 11.7.1 GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL ACCESSORY USES

11.7.1.1 General Allowance for Accessory Uses

Any use that complies with the conditions listed in this Division 11.7 may be operated as an accessory use to a primary use permitted by right, a use subject to limitations, or to a use by Special Exception review unless specifically prohibited. In this Section 11.7.1, the term “use by right” also includes these two other types of uses. Some zone districts allow certain specific accessory uses as listed in the Divisions 11.7, 11.8 and 11.9 below. Accessory uses need not be enclosed, unless specifically stated herein.

11.7.1.2 General Conditions for All Accessory Uses

All accessory uses, except accessory dwelling unit uses, must comply with all of the following general conditions. Accessory dwelling units, where permitted, must comply with the specific conditions stated in Section 11.8.2 instead of these general conditions.

- A. Such use shall be clearly incidental and customary to and commonly associated with the operation of the primary use by right.
- B. Such accessory use shall be operated and maintained under the same ownership and on the same zone lot as the use by right; provided, however, that in all Mixed Use Commercial Zone Districts, lessees or concessionaires may operate the accessory use; and provided further that in nonresidential structures owned and operated by a place for religious assembly in a Residential Zone District, non-profit lessees or concessionaires may operate the accessory use.
- C. Such use shall not include residential occupancy in a detached accessory structure offered for rent or for other commercial gain. Residential occupancy in a detached accessory structure is allowed by members of a household occupying the primary structure, or domestic employees and the immediate families of such employees.
- D. The area of specific accessory uses shall be calculated as follows:
 1. Pool tables. The area occupied shall be calculated by adding 3 feet to each dimension of such pool table to include the area of play.
 2. Pinball, video games and other similar amusement devices. The area occupied shall be calculated by adding three feet to the area directly in front of the device.
 3. Dance floors. The area shall be the sum total of all of the areas of the dance floor and any stage or area used for the playing or performance of recorded or live music.
- E. The growing of medical marijuana is prohibited as accessory to a primary nonresidential use established in a Residential Zone District. This subsection 11.7.1.2.E shall expire on November 1, 2012.

11.7.1.3 Limitations in the Principal Structure

- A. Applicability
Section 11.7.1.3's limitations on accessory uses in the principal structure shall apply to all accessory uses operated partially or entirely within the structure containing the use by right. A limitation in Section 11.7.3.1.B shall not apply when it conflicts with a limitation specific to an accessory use found in Divisions 11.8, 11.9 or 11.10.

B. Limitations in the Principal Structure

If an accessory use is operated partially or entirely within the structure containing the use by right, the gross floor area within such structure utilized by the accessory use (except ~~garages,~~ loading docks, and dining rooms for the exclusive use of occupants or persons employed in the structure) shall not be greater than:

1. In a Residential Zone District, ~~except for a permitted accessory dwelling unit use~~ 20 percent of the gross floor area, but not to exceed 300 square feet, of a single unit dwelling ~~use~~, two-unit dwelling use, or multi dwelling unit use in a structure containing 8 or less dwelling units.

~~In a Residential Zone District, for a permitted accessory dwelling unit use, please see Section 11.8.2.~~

2. In a Residential Zone District, 10 percent of the gross floor area occupied by a use by right other than a single unit dwelling ~~use~~, two-unit dwelling use, or a multiple unit dwelling use in a structure containing 8 or less dwelling units.
3. ~~Except for a permitted accessory dwelling unit use,~~ in a Mixed Use Commercial Zone District or Industrial Zone District, 20 percent of the gross floor area of the structure containing the primary use by-right.

11.7.1.4 Prohibited Accessory Uses in Residential Zone Districts

In a Residential Zone District, the following accessory uses are specifically prohibited:

- A. The sale, lease, trade or other transfer of firearms or ammunition by a firearms dealer in Residential Zone Districts.
- B. The accessory parking/storage of vehicles, trailers, commercial vehicles, and RVs are governed by Division 10.9, Parking, Keeping and Storage of Vehicles, of this Code.

DIVISION 11.8 USES ACCESSORY TO PRIMARY RESIDENTIAL USES - LIMITATIONS AND STANDARDS

The Summary Use and Parking Tables in Articles 3 through 9 reference any limitations and standards applicable to allowed primary, accessory, or temporary uses. This Division contains limitations and standards applicable to specific uses accessory to primary residential uses across multiple zone districts and neighborhood contexts. In addition to meeting the general conditions and standards applicable to all accessory uses in Division 11.8 above, the following specific accessory uses shall comply with this Division's use-specific standards.

SECTION 11.8.1 UNLISTED ACCESSORY USES

11.8.1.1 In all Zone Districts:

- A. The Zoning Administrator shall determine and impose limitations on accessory uses not otherwise listed as allowed in an applicable Use Table in Articles 3 through 9, or not otherwise covered by the standards in this Article 11.
- B. All such determinations shall be reviewed according to the procedures and review criteria stated Section 12.4.6, Code Interpretation & Determination of Unlisted Uses. In addition to the criteria stated in Section 12.4.6, the Zoning Administrator shall determine whether a proposed accessory use is common and customary to a specific use by right, and if the use or structure is incidental to the specific use by right.
- C. The Zoning Administrator may impose limitations on the proposed accessory use, which shall be uniform throughout the zone district, and taking into consideration the intensity of the accessory use, the numbers of accessory uses, the space required by the accessory use, and the effect on adjacent property.
- D. Matters that may be regulated according to this Section 11.8.1 shall include, but shall not be limited to the following:
 1. Numbers of animals, except as specifically listed in Section 11.8.6, maintained as accessory to a primary residential use; or
 2. Types and intensity of repairs accessory to a use by right.

SECTION 11.8.2 ACCESSORY DWELLING UNIT ("ADUS")

11.8.2.1 All Zone Districts

In all Zone Districts where permitted with limitations:

A. Accessory to Primary Single Unit Dwelling Uses Only

Where specifically permitted in a zone district, an attached or detached accessory dwelling unit is allowed as accessory only to a primary single-unit dwelling use in accordance with the following requirements. In case of conflict between the specific requirements for accessory dwelling units stated below and the conditions stated in this Division 11.8 applicable to accessory uses or structures generally, the more specific requirements in this subsection shall apply to the accessory dwelling unit use.

B. General Building Requirements

1. Mobile homes, recreational vehicles, and travel trailers shall not be used as accessory dwelling units.
2. All attached or detached accessory dwelling units shall comply with the Denver Building and Fire Code.

3. ADUs established in a detached accessory structure shall comply with the Detached ADU Building form standards in the applicable zone district.

C. Structural and Location Requirements

All attached or detached accessory dwelling units shall meet the following requirements:

1. The primary single-unit dwelling use shall not be altered in any way so as to appear from a public street to be a multiple-unit dwelling use.
2. The structure housing an accessory dwelling unit shall not be served by a driveway separate from that serving the primary single-unit dwelling.
3. The accessory dwelling unit may be accessed by a separate outside stairway located in conformance with all building and zoning requirements, except outside access stairways shall not be located on the front facade of the building housing the primary dwelling use.
4. Roof and exterior wall materials and finishes for a detached structure housing the accessory dwelling unit shall be comparable in composition and appearance to that of the primary single unit dwelling structure on the zone lot.
5. Wherever feasible, water and sewer shall be supplied to both the primary single unit dwelling use and the attached or detached accessory dwelling unit use through single taps, and electric and/or gas utilities shall be supplied through a single meter.

D. Special Allowance for ADUs on Existing Carriage Lots

Accessory dwelling unit uses may be established on a carriage lot, even in the absence of a primary single unit dwelling use on such carriage lot, provided the accessory dwelling unit use complies with the standards in this Section 11.8.2 and with all applicable standards in Section 12.10.4 Development on Carriage Lots.

11.8.2.2 All SU Zone Districts

In all Single Unit (SU) Zone Districts, where permitted with limitations:

1. The accessory dwelling unit use shall be operated and maintained under the same ownership as the primary single unit dwelling use.
2. Accessory dwelling units shall not be sold apart from the primary dwelling unit.
3. The owner of the zone lot on which an ADU is maintained shall occupy either the primary dwelling unit or the ADU as the owner’s legal and permanent residence. For purposes of this provision, “the owner’s legal and permanent residence” shall mean a property owner who makes his or her legal residence at the site, as evidenced by voter registration, vehicle registration, or similar means.
4. An accessory dwelling unit use, whether detached or attached, shall not exceed a maximum size as stated in the following table, unless otherwise specifically allowed by this Code.

ZONE LOT OR CARRIAGE LOT SIZE	MAXIMUM FLOOR AREA OF ACCESSORY DWELLING UNIT USE
