SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE

WORK GROUP EXAMPLES:
Employees in the Safety and Industrial Hygiene job classes implement the City's commitment to provide a safe and healthy work environment for City employees.

SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE PROFESSIONAL I (617-A): Performs entry-level, professional safety work conducting inspections to ensure compliance with safety and health requirements and enforcing agency safety and loss policies and procedures.

Education: Bachelor's degree in safety engineering, industrial or environmental health and safety, a physical science, or a related field.

Experience: None

SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE PROFESSIONAL II (808-A): Performs full performance professional level safety work promoting agency awareness and understanding of safety and occupational health programs in order to ensure the overall safety and health of employees, the community, and the environment and to ensure compliance with federal, state, and city safety and health regulations.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in safety engineering, industrial or environmental health and safety, a physical science, or a related field.

Experience: Three years of professional level safety and health experience implementing and evaluating programs for compliance, accident prevention, employee involvement, and cost savings.

SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE ADMINISTRATOR (810-A): Performs specialized full performance work developing and implementing goals, objectives, and policies for comprehensive safety and industrial hygiene programs to increase safety, save lives, and create a safe work environment that is compliant with federal, state, and city safety and health regulations.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in safety engineering, industrial or environmental health and safety, a physical science, or a related field.

Experience: Three years of professional level experience developing and implementing safety and health procedures, applying technological and scientific methods towards reducing worker exposure to hazardous conditions and environments, and performing accident investigations and prevention.
SAFETY AND INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE SUPERVISOR (811-A): Performs professional and supervisory work over professional safety and industrial hygiene staff, provides direction and long range and short term planning, directs policy and procedure development, and makes budgetary and resource allocation decisions.

Education: Bachelor’s degree in safety engineering, industrial or environmental health and safety, a physical science, or a related field.

Experience: Three years of professional level experience developing and implementing safety and health procedures, applying technological and scientific methods towards reducing worker exposure to hazardous conditions and environments, and performing accident investigations and prevention.

MANAGER (814 A): Manages functional and/or operational area(s) that include implementing work plans based on annual goals and the strategic plan; resolves citizen, operational, and management issues; and achieves goals while ensuring resources are utilized appropriately.

Education: Bachelor’s Degree.

Experience: Three years of supervisory experience or three years of experience at an Administrator level.