MEMORANDUM

REVISION 9 SERIES D

TO: Holders of Career Service Rule Books

FROM: Career Service Board

DATE: October 10, 2014

SUBJECT: Revision of the Career Service Rule 9-62 Child Welfare Stipend

The Career Service Board has approved the revision of Career Service Rule 9-62 Child Welfare Stipend. Here is a summary of the changes to this rule:

- Removes program details from the rule that can now be set by the DHS.
- Stipends will be paid based on the shift worked by the employee. Shifts have been defined for the purposes of this rule to describe after-hour periods where emergency call coverage is needed. Shifts are defined differently for each type of after-hours emergency duty.
- The amount of the stipends has been changed to more closely track with generally prevailing rates paid in the metropolitan area and to compensate based on the work actually performed within a shift.

9-62 Child Welfare Stipend

(Revised October 10, 2014; Rule Revision Memo 9D)

A. State law requires the Department of Human Services (DHS) to have staff available twenty-four hours a day to receive reports of abuse and neglect, conduct initial assessments of such reports that are deemed emergencies, and investigate those reports that are appropriate for child protective services. In order to meet this requirement, the Manager of Human Services (Manager) may schedule eligible employees to be available to respond to emergency calls at night, weekends, mandated furlough days and holidays. Employees who are scheduled to respond to emergency calls and fail to meet these expectations may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
