Performs permanently assigned lead work in office support duties on a different shift or in a different location from the work unit supervisor or in a work unit where the first line supervisor’s span of control is ten or more employees and performs the job responsibilities of the work unit or function.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This is the fifth class of a seven level series. Performs permanently assigned lead work in office support duties on a different shift or in a different location from the work unit supervisor or in a work unit where the first line supervisor’s span of control is ten or more employees and performs the job responsibilities of the work unit or function. This class is distinguished from the Administrative Support Assistant IV which performs specialized and/or technical office support duties. This class is distinguished from a Supervisor of Administrative Support I which performs first line supervision over clerical employees.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended, gathered and discretion and judgement are required within the parameters of the job function.
