

Office of Human Resources
Administrative Support Supervisor II - AC1547
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Supervise and coordinate activities of first-line supervisors engaged in supervising workers providing administrative support.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Administrative Support Supervisor II class performs second-line supervisory duties over employees who supervise workers performing office support duties which support the development and implementation of policies, procedures, standards, training and methods for managing a specialized system or program. The work also involves responsibility for maintaining, advising on, interpreting the policies, reviewing, and evaluating the management of such systems or programs. The Administrative Support Supervisor II is distinguished from the Administrative Support Supervisor I class by the nature of the work; the Administrative Support Supervisor II class uses communication and organizational skills to coordinate, supervise, manage or train others to accomplish operational goals, while employees in the Administrative Support Supervisor I class use their knowledge and skills to direct people as they work, actively looking for ways to help, and to teach others how to do something. These supervisors engage in the same work as the workers supervised; the Supervisor of Administrative Support II may engage in the same work as the workers supervised. This is the seventh class of a seven level series.

Level of Supervision Exercised

Exercises general supervision over the Supervisor of Administrative Support I class.
