General Statement of Duties

Supervise and coordinate activities of workers involved in providing administrative support.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Administrative Support Supervisor I class performs first-line supervisory duties over workers performing office support duties which support the development and implementation of policies, procedures, standards, training and methods for managing a specialized system or program. The work also involves responsibility for maintaining, advising on, interpreting the policies, reviewing, and evaluating the management of such systems or programs. The Administrative Support Supervisor I is distinguished from the Administrative Support Assistant V which performs assigned lead work in office support duties, and is also distinguished from the Administrative Support Supervisor II class which performs second-level supervisory duties over employees performing first-line supervisory duties and usually does not engage in the same work as the workers supervised. This is the sixth class of a seven level series.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are in the form of stated objectives for the section, unit, function or project.

Work assignment is generally unstructured and employee is responsible for assigning and supervising a variety of functions to achieve the objectives of the section, unit or project. Duties performed involve employing theory/principles to weigh and evaluate factors requiring judgment, analytical ability and problem solving.

Employee is responsible for simultaneous coordination and supervision of several functions, programs or projects in various stages of completion.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under managerial direction, the employee has personal accountability or carrying out the work objectives of an organizational unit or section within the scope of established guidelines and the mission of the agency or department. Employee is expected to resolve problems that arise in the normal course of the work. Work may be discussed with higher level supervisors and reviewed for soundness of judgment and feasibility of decisions.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts of a non-prescribed nature involving the negotiation and resolution of non-routine problems encountered and where exceptional degrees of discretion and judgment and specialized knowledge are required in carrying out the programs and policies of an organization.

Level of Supervision Exercised
