Genera Statement of Duties

Conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues recommendations regarding matters brought by citizens who are contesting property assessments on behalf of the County Board of Equalization.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Assessment Hearings Officer conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues binding decisions about matters brought by agency employees or by individuals contesting charges or policy for municipal services for the County Board of Equalization. This class is distinguished from the Hearing Officer, which conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues binding decisions that contest matters, charges, or policy for municipal services brought by agency employees or by individuals.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under administrative supervision, the employee has personal accountability for carrying out an assigned function, program or project within the scope of established guidelines and objectives and is expected to resolve problems that arise in the normal course of the work. Completed work is generally reviewed for soundness of judgment, conclusion, adequacy and conformance to policy.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended, gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.

Level of Supervision Exercised

By position, performs lead work.
