

Office of Human Resources
Budget Analyst Associate - CV1823
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Performs intermediate-level professional budget management and analysis work to oversee and monitor agency or department budget functions.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Associate Budget Analyst may work within an agency or department performing various budget related functions or work within an organization that services multiple agencies and departments with regard to a specific area of budgeting.

The Associate Budget Analyst is distinguished from the Staff Budget Analyst, which performs entry-level professional budget management and analysis while training and assisting with higher-level analysis under close supervision; and, is distinguished from the Senior Budget Analyst, which performs full performance professional level budget management and analysis work that is complex and specialized in day-to-day activities and budget functions.

The following definitions are meant to assist in distinguishing between the three core concepts of accounting, budgeting, and finance, which are as follows:

- Accounting: Tracks, records, and reconciles financial transactions to ensure consistency and compliance with fiscal rules, and creates reports for historical records, audits, and the evaluation of financial processes and transactions.
- Budgeting: Tracks, monitors, and projects expenditures, allocates funds, oversees assets, and prepares justifications and reports with regard to a specific organizational budget and associated business needs.
- Finance: Researches, analyzes, calculates, and compiles financial data, prepares reports for business decision making, determines best use of financial resources, which includes determining interest rates, investments, and managing cash and debt.
