General Statement of Duties

This class performs standard/intermediate level professional work facilitating processes that prepare job seekers to meet industry demands and provide businesses with a qualified workforce.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class performs standard/intermediate level professional workforce and business development functions to prepare workers to obtain and maintain employment, careers and self sufficiency; Business Development Associate II positions also facilitate processes by which businesses develop, assess and retain a workforce that enables them to maintain and improve their economic competitiveness. They also provide specialized services that include career development, specialized recruitments and training development directly to their job seeker and business customers. The Business Development Associate I class performs paraprofessional work in workforce and business development functions to prepare job seekers to achieve goals related to work participation, job placement, retention and wage gain.

In addition, the Business Development Associate II class is distinguished by the following characteristics:

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended and gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.
