Office of Human Resources

Sr Classification and Compensation Analyst Senior – CA2996

General Statement of Duties

Under general supervision, maintains City's classification and pay plan. Conducts complex market studies, updates classification plan. Handles most complex aspects of work; takes a lead role in large projects.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class is part of the Classification and Compensation Analyst Job Series. This job series encompasses the following job classifications and a summary of their essential job function is as follows:

- Classification and Compensation Analyst: This job is the first level of a two-level series. The essential function of this job is to maintain the City's classification and pay plan, conduct moderately complex market studies, and update the classification plan.

- Senior Classification and Compensation Analyst: This job is the second level of a two-level series. The essential function of this job is to maintain the City's classification and pay plan, conduct complex market studies, update the classification plan, handle the most complex aspects of work, and take a lead role in large projects.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices, or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations, and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place, and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices, or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended and gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.

City and County of Denver
Level of Supervision Exercised

By position, performs lead work and/or supervises human resources staff.

Essential Duties

Ensures all applicable positions within the city are properly evaluated, benchmarked, and placed within the classification and pay plan framework. Leads and/or participates in the annual Pay Survey market analysis preparation.

Ensures pay equity by conducting thorough and accurate analyses.

Performs classification position audits to reallocate incumbents within the classification and pay plan to ensure employees are classified in alignment with assigned duties.

Conducts market research, market surveys, individual audits, and classification and compensation studies to ensure current classifications and pay ranges are competitive. Presents recommendations to Peer Review Committee prior to finalizing studies and audits with client management.

Writes new or modifies existing job specifications. Consults with management and/or employees to determine essential duties, type and level of duties, experience, and education required.

Approves personnel requisitions and pay for overtime, adjustments, and extensions.

Forecasts and recommends next fiscal year’s merit pool percentage increase. Develops merit allocation guidelines and merit implementation timeline in partnership with key stakeholders (HRIS, Learning and Development, Department of Finance Budget and Payroll).

Maintains citywide list of equipment classifications used for classifying positions that operate various types of equipment and approving differentials by Payroll.

Prepares complex technical reports, which includes summarizing data and modeling, forecasting, and costing out various scenarios.

Provides consultation to line management, HR Service Teams, and HR Business Partners.

Works with assigned client groups to implement the annual merit process.

Collaborates with the Office of Human Resources’ Marketing and Communications Division on the ordinance process to ensure proper posting on appropriate websites and email distributions.

Makes presentations to the Career Service Board at public hearings.

Participates in and may lead Career Service Rule revision discussions; partners with appropriate internal stakeholders (City Attorney’s Office, HR Business Partners, HR Compliance Officer, etc.) to prepare rule revision presentations.

Leads and conducts complex special projects.

Performs other related duties as assigned.

Any one position may not include all the duties listed. However, the allocation of positions will be determined by the amount of time spent in performing the essential duties listed above.
Competencies

Customer Service - Works with customers to assess needs, provides assistance, resolves problems, and satisfy expectations, knows products and services, and is committed to providing quality products and services.

Decision Making – Makes sound, well-informed, and objective decisions, perceives the impact and implications of decisions, commits to action even in uncertain situations to accomplish program goals, and causes change.

Working with People - Shows respect for the views and contributions of other team members. Shows empathy, listens, supports, and cares for others, and reconciles conflict

Problem Solving – Identifies problems, determines accuracy and relevance information, and uses sound judgment to generate and evaluate alternatives and to make recommendations.

Reading – Understands and interprets written material including technical material, rules, regulations, instructions, reports, charts, graphs, or tables and applies what is learned from written material to specific situations.

Written Communication – Composes, reviews, edits, and issues written materials for diverse audiences and communicates purpose in a succinct and organized manner that is appropriate for context, time, and place.

Arithmetic/Mathematical Reasoning - Performs computations such as addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division correctly; solves practical problems by choosing appropriately from a variety of mathematical techniques such as formulas and percentages.

Knowledge & Skills

Knowledge of classification concepts, principles, and practices related to structuring organizations and positions and determining the appropriate pay system, occupational grouping, title, and pay level of positions.

Ability to analyze large, complex data in many forms to identify costs, trends, forecast program needs, and create predictive models.

Education Requirement

Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration, Human Resources or a related field.

Experience Requirement

Five (5) years of experience in a compensation administration environment.

Education & Experience Equivalency

One (1) year of the appropriate type and level of experience may be substituted for each required year of post-high school education.

Additional appropriate education may be substituted for the minimum experience requirements.

Licensure & Certification

None

Working Environment

Subject to pressure for multiple calls, inquiries, and interruptions.
Level of Physical Demand

1-Sedentary (0-10 lbs.)

Physical Demands

(Physical Demands are a general guide and specific positions will vary based on working conditions, locations, and agency/department needs.):

- Hearing: perceiving the nature of sound by ear.
- Lifting: raising or lowering objects weighing no more than 10 pounds, from one level to another.
- Mental Demands: mathematical reasoning, memorization, oral comprehension, spatial orientation, and written comprehension.
- Sitting: remaining in the normal seated position.
- Stooping: bending the body by bending the spine at the waist.
- Talking: expressing or exchanging ideas by means of spoken words.
- Vision Near acuity: ability to see clearly at 20 inches or less.

Background Check Requirement

- Criminal Check
- Education Check
- Employment Verification

Assessment Requirement

None

Probation Period

Six (6) months.

Class Detail

- Pay Grade: A-813
- FLSA Code: Y
- Management Level: 9
- Established Date: 9/21/2018
- Established By: Lori Schumann
- Revised Date: 2/24/19
- Revised By: Blair Malloy
- Class History: Updated level of supervision and other minor spec edits.