General Statement of Duties

Works with public and community groups to improve police/community relations, enhance citizen involvement and accomplish city/community goals for the Office of the Independent Monitor.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class is exclusive to Denver’s Office of the Independent Monitor and is not a Career Service position. This position reports directly to the Monitor and will be responsible for performing professional level staff work representing the mission, goals and objectives of the Independent Police Monitor program to the public and serving as a communications bridge between the Police Monitor program, public safety organizations and community groups. This is an “at will” position that will serve at the pleasure of the Monitor.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guidelines, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts of non-prescribed natures involving the negotiation and resolution of non-routine problems encountered and where exceptional degrees of discretion and judgment are required in carrying out the program and policies of the organization.

Level of Supervision Exercised

May perform leadwork on a job-by-job or rotating basis.

Essential Duties
