General Statement of Duties

Supervises customer service agents working in a contact center environment while managing continuous improvement initiatives for the operation and supporting customer service initiatives of city department and agencies. Provides leadership and direction over contact center operations to include conducting long range/short term planning and developing operational policy and performance criteria.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Contact Center Operations Manager is distinguished from the Customer Service Agent Lead, which performs permanently assigned lead work responsibilities and provides comprehensive customer service, in a contact center environment, by responding to a variety of customer requests for information while providing thorough, complex, and accurate information regarding services and procedures in the City and County of Denver.

The Contact Center Operations Manager is also distinguished from the Operational Supervisor I, which performs supervisory duties over administrative, paraprofessional, and/or technical staff and supports professional and/or higher-level supervisors/managers through the application of the principles of a particular discipline, profession, and/or field of study in order to accomplish the operational goals of the assigned area(s).

Finally, the Contact Center Operations Manager is distinguished from the Manager, which manages an operational and/or functional area(s) and performs some elements of supervision by recommending and implementing plans, procedures, policies, programs, and projects.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are in the form of stated vision and objectives for the division or agency.

Work assignment is unstructured and employee is responsible for implementing and managing a variety of objectives, resources, and strategies to achieve the goals of the division or agency. Duties performed include operational and organizational planning, developing standards, schedules, priorities, guidelines, processes, measurement (evaluation) systems, implementation of production and performance management standards, and allocating resources.

Employee is responsible for implementing operational goals and objectives for the management of a range of complex divisions and/or city wide responsibilities and overall functions in which several projects and programs may be in progress with simultaneous, multiple resource involvement. Develops solutions to organizational and operational problems, responsible for organizational management (development, staffing, and conflict), and allocating resources.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under managerial direction, the employee has personal accountability for carrying out the work objectives of an organizational unit or section within the scope of established guidelines and the mission of the agency or department. Employee is expected to resolve problems that arise in the normal course of the work. Work may be discussed with higher level supervisors and reviewed for soundness of judgment and feasibility of decisions.
Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts are of a non-prescribed nature involving the negotiation and resolution of problems and where exceptional degrees of discretion, judgment, and knowledge are required. Contacts where the exchange of information, support, influence, and cooperation may have a very significant impact on the division, programs, and/or policies of the organization.
