General Statement of Duties
Performs professional level administrative work supporting the City Council, The Executive Director, and Legislative services staff on the day to day operations of the City Council office. Performs professional level administrative work supporting the City Council, The Executive Director, and Legislative services staff on the day to day operations of the City Council office.

Distinguishing Characteristics
The Council Deputy Clerk is distinguished from the Staff Assistant, which performs paraprofessional level work to execute components of a specific administrative function(s) in the operations of an organization.

The Council Deputy Clerk is also distinguished from the Council Clerk, which provides advanced and specialized administrative, analytical, and secretarial support for City Council. The Council Clerk also functions as the City’s parliamentarian. The main focus of Council Clerk is to provide support to City Council members before and during regular sessions of City Council, whereas, the Legislative Assistant provides administrative and professional support to the day-to-day operations of City Council.

Finally, the Council Deputy Clerk is distinguished from the City Council Aide series, which provides administrative and/or professional support to city council members by managing administrative functions within Council members’ district offices, responding to and resolving constituent problems and inquiries, and providing guidance and advice to Council members.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level
Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations, and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place, and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices, or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review
Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness, and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose
Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended, and gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.
