

Office of Human Resources
Director Recreation - CA2753
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Directs the operations of recreation center or major program areas within the Recreation Division of the Department of Parks and Recreation including developing annual and multi-year work plans and strategies, ensures resources are available to achieve work plans, resolves complex business issues, and establishes management practices and processes that ensure the accomplishment of performance standards.

Distinguishing Characteristics

There are two classes in the Recreation Management series, Recreation Manager and the Director of Recreation. The Recreation Manager is a first level management class. A Recreation Manager oversees city-wide programs within the division that are operated independently from recreation centers. A Recreation Manager position is operationally and/or functionally focused.

The Director of Recreation is a mid-level management class. A Director of Recreation manages the overall operations and service delivery for a multitude of recreation centers of varying size, city-wide recreation programs, and core program areas. A Director position is operationally and/or functionally focused as well as strategically focused.

Level of Supervision Exercised

Performs supervisory duties over supervisors and/or other individual contributors.
