

Office of Human Resources
Executive - LA1770
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Manages and directs multiple divisions within a large charter department or agency. Establishes a multi-year vision and strategic plan for the divisions, optimizes resource allocation, and ensures the divisions accomplish annual goals and strategic initiatives.

Distinguishing Characteristics

There are four general management classes (Manager, Director, Executive, and Deputy Manager) and specific individual management classes. The Executive class may be used as deputy managers of agencies for small to medium sized charter departments. The large departments within the City are the Department of Public Works, Department of Human Services, Department of Aviation, Department of Parks and Recreation, and the Department of Safety.

An Executive directs multiple divisions and is generally responsible for supervising directors, managers, supervisors, and individual contributors. The Executive is distinguished from the Deputy Manager which is the highest level of management in a large charter department or independent agency, other than appointed or elected charter officers.

Executive is distinguished from Director which performs “core” mid-level operational management by directing functional and/or operational areas for a division to include implementing annual and multi-year work plans and implementation strategies; ensuring resources are available to achieve work plans; resolving complex business issues; and establishing management practices and processes that ensure the accomplishment of performance standards.

Level of Supervision Exercised

Directs multiple divisions of a department and must supervise directors, managers, supervisors, and may supervise individual contributors.
