THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Performs entry-level professional financial management and analysis work in the areas of portfolio investments, reviewing business cases and proposals, managing cash and debt functions, and overseeing assets and resources, while receiving training in fiscal rules and policies.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Staff Financial Analyst performs some of the major duties or responsibilities described within the essential duties section of this class specification and may perform various elements within those major duties and responsibilities; but, the Staff Financial Analyst may not perform all of the essential duties outlined below as this is a citywide classification, which encompasses a wide range of work.

The Staff Financial Analyst supports internal units within a department or agency, or may support a client group outside of the organization.

The Staff Financial Analyst is distinguished from the Associate Financial Analyst that performs more routine financial management and analysis work and assignments under normal supervision, whereas the Staff Financial Analyst performs entry-level financial management and analysis work while in training under close supervision.

The following definitions are to assist in distinguishing between the three core concepts of accounting, budgeting, and finance, which are as follows:

- Accounting: Tracks, records, and reconciles financial transactions to ensure consistency and compliance with fiscal rules, and creates reports for historical records, audits, and the evaluation of financial processes and transactions.
- Budgeting: Tracks, monitors, and projects expenditures, allocates funds, oversees assets, and prepares justifications and reports with regard to a specific organizational budget and associated business needs.
- Finance: Researches, analyzes, calculates, and compiles financial data, prepares reports for business decision making, determines best use of financial resources, which includes determining interest rates, investments, and managing cash and debt.
