General Statement of Duties

Designs or creates graphics to meet specific promotional needs, such as newsletters, reports, brochures, pamphlets, displays, logos, web design or other related visual materials and signs.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class is distinguished from Graphics Technician, which performs graphics work in a full-service signage shop including layout/graphics, and fabrication of a variety of signs for various traffic operations. This class is also distinguished from the Graphics Supervisor based on the full performance supervisory responsibilities, and incumbents in this class supervise subordinate Graphic Designers.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged defended, gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.
