General Statement of Duties

Ensures that human resource and employee relations practices are consistent and in compliance with applicable federal, state, and local laws. Conducts investigations, writes and presents reports to appropriate parties. Assists in the development and implementation of policies. Provides training and counsel to human resource employees.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class performs specialized, professional human resources work. This class is distinguished from a Human Resources Business Partner Senior that functions as a strategic human resources consultant, where an agency human resources team does not exist, acting as a subject matter expert within all functional areas in human resources. Ensures that human resources practices are consistent with legal and regulatory requirements, CSA Rules, human resources best practices, and the city’s strategic vision for human resources. Ensures that the human resources strategy is linked to the operational strategy of the agency. Creates and implements integrated human resources solutions to business problems with human resources systems implications.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally in the form of stated objectives only, with issues and factors largely undefined, requiring the employee to exercise creativity and ingenuity in devising criteria, techniques, strategy and methodologies for approaching assigned functions or projects.

Duties performed involve concepts, theories and concrete factors to be evaluated and weighed, requiring a high degree of analytical ability, and independent judgment and decision-making.

Work assignment is generally unstructured and employee is responsible for organizing complex, varied and simultaneous coordination of several functions, programs or projects in various stages of completion.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts are of a remedial nature involving the resolution of problems and where some degree of discretion and judgment are required in carrying out a major program and/or function of the organization.

Level of Supervision Exercised

By position, performs lead work and/or supervises human resources staff.
