IT Communications Technician I – CI1660

General Statement of Duties
Performs full performance technical Information Technology (IT) communications infrastructure support.

Distinguishing Characteristics
This class is distinguished from the IT Technician I and II and IT System Administrator Staff by specific work related to IT communications. This class is distinguished from IT Technician Supervisor that performs supervisory work. This class is also distinguished by the following factors:

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level
Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent. Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion. Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review
Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose
Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged gathered or presented and some degree of discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.

Level of Supervision Exercised
By position, performs lead work.

Essential Duties
