General Statement of Duties

Performs full performance professional information security work enforcing information security practices and protocols; installing, configuring, and monitoring security systems and alerts; and participating in the analysis and evaluation of enterprise information security.

Distinguishing Characteristics

Information Security Specialist is distinguished from other professional information technology classes as positions in these classes have security oriented responsibilities by implementing formal methodologies, promoting and enforcing approved best practices and provide technical leadership of security and governance initiatives on behalf of Citywide interests. This class is solely concerned with an information security and governance related duty assignment.

The Information Security Specialist is distinguished from Information Security Manager, which researches and recommends the policies and procedures that the City and County of Denver should have in place to implement, evaluate, and improve the tools, methods, procedures and other controls necessary for protecting all City information technology, assets and interests from intentional or unintentional modification, disclosure, destruction or tampering. The Information Security Manager is also responsible for evaluating and monitoring all information assurance and network security practices within City government and enforces their adherence to citywide policies and procedures for managing the security of all electronically produced and stored information within City government.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally in the form of stated objectives only with issues and factors largely undefined requiring the employee to exercise creativity and ingenuity in devising criteria, techniques, strategy, and methodologies for approaching assigned functions or projects.

Duties performed involve concepts, theories, and concrete factors to be evaluated and weighed requiring a high degree of analytical ability, independent judgment, and decision-making.

Work assignment is generally unstructured and employee is responsible for organizing complex, varied, and simultaneous coordination of several functions, programs, or projects in various stages of completion.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness, and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.
