General Statement of Duties

Following written guidelines, creates uncomplicated original catalog records and performs adaptive cataloging for item representation in library collection and inventory.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class creates original catalog records by describing materials in varying formats according to content and physical characteristics. It is distinguished from the Collection Development Librarian, which recommends purchases and orders materials.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose

Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, gathered and presented and some degree of discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.

Level of Supervision Exercised

May perform leadwork as assigned.
