Performs paraprofessional operational duties that serve the needs of the business unit, evaluates operational practices, and makes recommendations for improvements.

Distinguishing Characteristics

This class performs paraprofessional operational duties that serve the needs of the business unit. The Operations Assistant is distinguished from an Administrative Support Assistant IV that performs specialized and/or technical office support work that requires detailed knowledge of the specialized/technical area. The Operations Assistant class is also distinguished from the Staff Assistant class that performs paraprofessional level work to execute components of a specific administrative function(s) in the operations of an organization.

Operations Assistants participate in the operations of a department/agency to achieve its business objectives. Employees have an advanced knowledge of the business unit, policies, procedures, and applicable federal, state, and/or local guidelines. Whereas, a Staff Assistant is responsible for components of administrative functions that are typically performed by an administrator or professional level class that have been delegated by the manager to support an operational or functional area(s).

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level

Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations, and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place, and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices, or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review

Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness, and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.
