General Statement of Duties
Performs regularly assigned lead work over professional payroll associates and assists with developing and enforcing payroll policies and procedures and implementing and maintaining time and attendance systems used within the city.

Distinguishing Characteristics
The Lead Payroll Associate is distinguished from the Payroll Associate, which performs full performance technical work maintaining employee time reporting and payroll accounting records, which includes: posting data to payroll system, balancing and reconciling payroll records, troubleshooting and resolving issues, and explaining and interpreting payroll rules, regulations, policies, and procedures. The Lead Payroll Associate is distinguished from the Senior Payroll Associate, which performs full performance professional work reviewing, auditing, approving, and maintaining employee time reports and payroll accounting records and oversees and monitors a variety of payroll adjustments and changes to employee payroll data. Finally, the Lead Payroll Associate is distinguished from the Payroll Supervisor, which performs professional and supervisory work over professional and technical payroll staff engaged in performing a variety of payroll activities.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision-Making Level
Guidelines are generally but not always clearly applicable, requiring the employee to exercise judgment in selecting the most pertinent guideline, interpret precedents, adapt standard practices to differing situations and recommend alternative actions in situations without precedent.

Duties assigned are generally complex and may be of substantial intricacy. Work assignment is performed within an established framework under general instructions but requires simultaneous coordination of assigned functions or projects in various stages of completion.

Employee is responsible for determining time, place and sequence of actions to be taken. Unusual problems or proposed deviations from guidelines, practices or precedents may be discussed with the supervisor before being initiated.

Level of Supervision Received & Quality Review
Under general supervision, the employee receives assignments and is expected to carry them through to completion with substantial independence. Work is reviewed for adherence to instructions, accuracy, completeness and conformance to standard practice or precedent. Recurring work clearly covered by guidelines may or may not be reviewed.

Interpersonal Communication & Purpose
Contacts with the public or employees where explanatory or interpretive information is exchanged, defended, gathered and discretion and judgment are required within the parameters of the job function.

Level of Supervision Exercised
Leads two or more professional payroll associates.
