Section 4. That Chapter 28 of the Denver Revised Municipal Code shall be amended by adding a new Section 28-115.5, to read as follows:

Sec. 28-115.5 - Complaint, Investigation, Hearing and Decision – Source of Income Discrimination

This Section 28-115.5 applies only to matters involving source-of-income discrimination in lieu of sections 28-107 through 28-114 above, which are not available to parties whose only complaint involves source of income discrimination. The hearing process in this section is intended to be a simplified and scalable process to enhance the just, speedy, and efficient determination of complaints.

(a) Any aggrieved person may file with the agency a complaint alleging a violation of the provisions of this article. The complaint must state, to the extent known, the name and address of the person or entity alleged to have committed the violation, who shall be called the respondent, the address of the housing unit or complex involved, the name and address of any other individuals involved, and the dates on which the alleged violation occurred or were discovered. The complaint must state the substance of the alleged violation and other information as may be required by the agency. Any complaint under this article must be filed within thirty (30) days of the occurrence or discovery of the discriminatory practice.

(b) A complainant may voluntarily withdraw a complaint at any time before the completion of the agency's investigation and findings as specified in section 28-108. The circumstances surrounding the withdrawal may be fully investigated by the agency.

(c) Upon receipt of the complaint, the agency shall give notice of the complaint to the respondent and promptly investigate. Respondent has thirty (30) days from the date of the notice to respond and to request an informal administrative hearing, if desired.

(d) Upon receipt of the response or at the end of the response period, the agency has sixty (60) days to investigate, conduct any requested hearing, and issue a decision. If the agency or hearing officer finds that the respondent has engaged or is engaging in source-of-income discrimination, they may order the respondent to remediate such discrimination within thirty (30) days. The agency or hearing officer may order actions deemed necessary to remedy the discrimination, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent to cease his or her discriminatory advertising, behavior, or practices, or ordering the respondent to make the unit at issue or a similar unit available to the person discriminated against. If the agency determines that the respondent denied rental to the complainant on a discriminatory basis and the unit or a comparable unit are unavailable to be rented as a remedy, or if the respondent fails to otherwise comply with an order, the agency may impose a fine up to $5,000 and may order the respondent to pay actual, verifiable damages to the person who was discriminated against. The agency's final decision is appealable to the district court.

(e) No person may file a civil action in county court or state district court based on an alleged source of income discriminatory practice prohibited by this ordinance without first exhausting the proceedings and remedies available to that person under this ordinance

(f) Any person suffering a legal wrong or adversely affected or aggrieved by a decision of the agency pursuant to the provisions of this section is entitled to a judicial review thereof in accordance with Colorado Rule of Civil Procedure 106 upon filing in the appropriate court a written complaint for such review.
