

Block Parties on Residential Streets

(See SPECIAL EVENTS for non-residential streets)

Purpose	The block party permit applies to residential streets and alleys only. The permit supports the gathering of residents of a particular block and those adjacent to the street or alley being closed. Parties organized by commercial or business interests that are advertised and/or open to the broader public are permitted under Special Events. Gatherings on non-residential streets and those that include the sale of alcohol also fall under Special Events.
Document Date	August 6 th , 2018, Revised May 21 st 2019
Customer Interface	Most communications between the City and the customer will be done through Public Works Permit Operations (PWPO).
Application and Processing	Block party organizers are required to submit a completed block party application and resident petition to receive a block party permit. Forms are provided below. Completed paperwork can be submitted the following ways: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Via email: pwpermits@denvergov.org 2) In person at Denver’s Wastewater Management Building, 2000 West 3rd Avenue, 1st floor permitting office (303-446-3759). INSURANCE

Liability insurance is not required to obtain a street occupancy permit for a block party. However, Applicant acknowledges that private homeowners' or commercial liability insurance may not provide Applicant with liability protection for accidents that occur outside of Applicant's private property and in the public right-of-way. Applicant is aware that he, she, or it can purchase insurance thru the Tenant Use and Liability Insurance Program, or TULIP, offered by the City.

Please check one of the following:

- _____ I secured insurance for my party through my homeowner's insurance or business organization
- _____ I elected to purchase insurance coverage using the City's T.U.L.I.P program
- _____ I have not secured insurance

INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

1. Applicant agrees that he, she, or it will defend, indemnify, reimburse and hold harmless the City and County of Denver ("City"), its appointed and elected officials, agents and employees for, from and against all liabilities, claims, judgments, suits or demands for damages to persons or property arising out of, resulting from, or related to the Applicant's temporary use of the premises for which the Applicant is permitted to conduct a block party event on the date referenced above, that are due to the negligence or fault of the Applicant or the Applicant's agents, employees, representatives, subcontractors, suppliers, volunteers, patrons, guests, licensees, or invitees, or of any other person entering in or upon the Premises for said block party event with the express or implied invitation or permission of Applicant ("Claims").

2. Applicant's duty to defend and indemnify City shall arise at the time written notice of the Claim is first provided to City regardless of whether suit has been filed and even if Applicant is not named as a Defendant.

3. Applicant shall obtain, at its own expense, any insurance that he, she, or it deems necessary for the Applicant's and the City's protection.

The person signing and executing the Indemnity Agreement on behalf of Applicant represents and warrants that he or she has been fully authorized by Applicant to execute the Agreement on behalf of Applicant and to validly and legally bind Applicant to all the terms, performances and provisions of the Indemnity Agreement.

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the statements and representations made in connection with this application are true to the best of my knowledge.
