

General Comments

#1

Connect bike/ped trails for safer recreation

Response

We wanted to thank you for your input on the Urban Waterways Restoration Feasibility Study and the importance of flooding, access, and recreation to you.

#2

I believe healthy riparian areas are crucial for long-term sustainability, and encouraging visitors to these areas is important to build understanding and appreciation. by recreation i don't mean playing fields i mean walking and cycling paths

Response

We wanted to thank you for your input on the Urban Waterways Restoration Feasibility Study and the importance of access, habitat, water quality and recreation to you.

#3

We are very close, but not quite in the flood plain This last (June 2015) event got a bit scary. Had it lasted much longer, I fear that there would have been serious problems with the residences along the Gulch.

Response

We wanted to thank you for your input on the Urban Waterways Restoration Feasibility Study and the importance of access, habitat, water quality and recreation to you.