Volunteer Program
Application Process & Opportunities

Application & Assignment Process
Interested individuals must complete the Denver Parks & Recreation (DPR) Volunteer Application including areas of interest, training & certifications, and preferred site or region of the city. Skills and interests will be evaluated and recommendations made based upon the particular needs of a program area or facility. Upon review and approval of the background check, applicants will be assigned and trained by the site or program area supervisor or his/her delegate. All volunteers must sign and agree to abide by the terms of the DPR Volunteer Program Policy, Conduct and Responsibilities prior to engaging the public as a representative of DPR. Notes: Volunteers may be reassigned or terminated at the discretion of the supervisor. Community service assigned by judicial systems for diversion or retribution may not be conducted in DPR facilities or activities.

Background Check & Eligibility
All volunteers must undergo a thorough, annual background check. Verification of identification and 7 years of residency is required. Volunteers under the age of 18yrs must acquire a parent signature; all applicants 15+ will undergo a complete background check including social security verification, address trace, statewide criminal records check for misdemeanor / felony arrests / convictions in all 50 states (as appropriate), and review against the sex and violent offender registry. Criteria used for determining eligibility are dependent upon the type, severity of, and elapsed time since the offense.

Qualifications & Recognition
All interested applicants are expected to:

- Possess good character and reputation; conduct themselves professionally and appropriately; be courteous and engaging
- Commit to responsibilities for the entirety of the volunteer assignment; provide documentation of any required certifications or training, and attend additional trainings and orientations as required by the department
- Demonstrate good oral and written communication skills and the initiative to complete assigned tasks
- Conduct themselves in accordance with the DPR Volunteer Program Policy and the DPR Volunteer Rules and Responsibilities
- Volunteer logs will be maintained and submitted seasonally. Upon completion of the assignment successful contributors may be honored through various forms that could include banquet, letters of appreciation, or special tokens of appreciation.

Certification, Authorization & Background Verification

- I certify that all statements in my application and any other document I have submitted for a volunteer position with the Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) or the City and County of Denver (CCD) as well as all oral statements that I have made to any representative of DPR or the CCD are true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand and agree that ALL statements may be investigated.
- I understand that any falsification or omission of information discovered at any time during the selection process or during subsequent assignments, may bar me from consideration, or if I have been instated as a volunteer, may cause dismissal from the DPR or CCD. In order to facilitate a search for information, I hereby confirm the information provided on the application is true and correct.
- I hereby authorize the DPR or CCD, during the application process or during the course of any subsequent assignments with DPR or CCD, to obtain information from any source as to my education, experience, qualifications, driving record, criminal history or any other aspect of my background, as such information relates to the position for which I am being considered, or in which I may be assigned. I release and waive any claim or cause of action against any person responding to inquiries authorized herein, and against the DPR or CCD in making such inquires. A photocopy of this certification, authorization and waiver shall be as valid as the original and may be used in its stead.

Release and Waiver of Liability: In consideration of being allowed to participate as a volunteer for CCD or DPR:

- I certify that I am in good mental and physical condition and I understand the inherent risks associated with acting as a volunteer including the risk of physical injury or death. I further understand that I risk aggravating any preexisting physical condition I may have in the performance of these services. I acknowledge and understand that the use of appropriate protective equipment may be required (by assignment) and that while it is designed to reduce the risk of injury, may not prevent all injuries and there is no guarantee for my safety.
- I understand that while my volunteer services will be at the direction of DPR, its officers and employees, I am nevertheless not an employee of the CCD within the meaning of the Colorado Workers Compensation Act or for any other purpose at the time of my performance of volunteer services. I further understand that no employee/employer relationship is created and that no compensation or promise of future paid employment will result. I acknowledge that the volunteering of time and/or services does not constitute employment for the purposes of the Workers’ Compensation Act of Colorado and acknowledge that I am not entitled to benefits pursuant to said Act.
- In consideration of the CCD allowing me to participate as a volunteer, I waive and discharge the CCD and its respective employees, agents, representatives, officers, directors, and any associated or sponsoring agencies and entities from any and all liability to me or my personal representatives, assigns, heirs, children, dependents, spouse and relatives for any and all liabilities, claims, losses, judgments, costs or expenses, demands or damages of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, interest, penalties, reasonable attorneys’ fees and disbursements) that are caused by or arise from the theft, damage or loss of personal property, or for injury (including death) regardless of the cause(s) of such injury, loss or damage. I assume all risks associated with participation as a volunteer and specifically waive any liability for injuries that may result from negligence or carelessness of volunteers, city officers / employees, or the public.
- I understand that photographs or video/audios recorded during my service or during participation in any DPR activity or on any DPR managed property belongs to the CCD and may be used at its discretion. I understand that DPR may share DPR volunteer contact information with other departments, agencies, or associations if these groups have similar volunteer opportunities available. I understand that my participation as a volunteer in this activity is purely and solely voluntary and that I am not an employee, contractor, or representative of the CCD.

I hereby acknowledge that I have carefully read this document and that I fully understand its contents; that I am signing this document voluntarily and intend for it to be legally binding. Or, as applicable, to the extent permitted by law, this document shall include my child or children and my capacity as guardian if I am signing on behalf of my minor child or children who will participate as a volunteer(s).
