- Youth – not discussed

Denver Opportunity Index Presentation – Troy Riggs and Shawn Smith
- Three pillars of focus: financial stability, behavioral health, people left behind
- Denver Opportunity Index Model 2.0 will be online for public viewing in the future
- Thank you, Shawn and Troy, for presenting the Opportunity Index!

Jail Update – Carrie Stanley
- In the past 15 months, staff has grown from 6 to 12
- At the beginning of 2017, data from 5 programs was being tracked and today that number is up to 16
- Around 15% of the population is female; programs looking to include a larger number of the female population.
- For positions fully or partially funded by CPCC
  - Frances Samuel, hired in July 2018 as an Assessment and Transition Specialist
  - Rebecca Wildermuth, hired in August 2018 as a Mental Health Navigator
  - Jennifer Jordan, hired in July 2017, and Karen Mills, hired in April 2018, as Reentry Case Managers
- Biggest user of TRT beds (beds funded by CPCC) is county court probation, anecdotally reporting around 95% of the time those beds are being used

Updates and announcements
- Jeff needs help from BHC to operationalizing action items and bylaws/charters before bringing them back to full commission

If you’d like Troy and Shawn to present at neighborhood associations, contact Michael Sapp

Need help from BHC to • Bond Reform - Greg Mauro
  o Three bills processing in legislature to expand bond reform statewide ▪ 19.12.25: Eliminates ability for courts to institute a financial bond on municipal cases ▪ 19.12.26: Requires courts in Colorado to use actuarial risk assessment, currently recommend and require all counties to develop pretrial services. At this time, 17 of 64 counties use pretrial services. This has laid over to make sure there is no race or gender disparity when risk assessment is utilized.
    ▪ 19.191: Timeframes of how soon someone must appear in court and how quickly they have to be released after bond is posted

• CPCC Retreat action items noted on back of agenda. Jeff happy to have one-on-one conversations to answer any questions.

Helen Morgan asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting. Paul Kashmann moved to adjourn the meeting. Lisa Carpenter seconded the motion. All in favor. None opposed. Meeting adjourned.

Meeting Adjourned
