

To All Interested Parties:

Denver's Department of Public Health & Environment is seeking new members to join the Cannabis Sustainability Work Group (CSWG) for 2019. The mission of Denver's Cannabis Sustainability Work Group is to promote sustainability in the cannabis industry through education, the development and dissemination of best practices, and the facilitation of dialogue between the cannabis industry, the community, and technical experts. Learn more about the group at www.denvergov.org/cannabissustainability.

In 2018, each work group member will participate in one or more subcommittees:

1. The Events & Outreach Committee, which is tasked with planning regular workshops and evening events, and developing written communications.
2. The BMP & Data Committee, which will update the Best Management Practices Guide and spearhead voluntary data collection efforts.
3. Policy Committee, which will develop policy recommendations and may participate in advocacy efforts to improve policies which impact sustainability.
4. Symposium Committee, a joint committee of the Work Group and the Cannabis Certification Council planning the fourth annual Cannabis Sustainability Symposium.

The work group's subcommittees will meet monthly during 2019, and general meetings will be held bimonthly. All members are expected to attend each meeting either in person or by teleconference.

Individuals interested in participating in the Cannabis Sustainability Work Group must send an application by email to cannabissustainability@denvergov.org. In order to be considered, the email must contain the information listed below. Please note that work group requests and inquiries must be made via email. Requests and inquiries made via telephone cannot be accepted.

1. The name of the individual interested in participating and his or her contact information.
2. In 150 words or less, why do you want to participate in the Work Group?
3. In 150 words or less, please describe the knowledge, skills and abilities you possess that will contribute to the success of the work group. Optional: attach a current resume.
4. State which committee(s) you prefer to participate in.

The deadline for emailing your application to participate is close of business on Tuesday, January 8th, 2019. Selections for the work group and the public announcement will be made by close of business on January 14th. The first meeting will be convened on Thursday, January 24th at 1:30 pm.

Please feel free to share this email with individuals whom you think would be interested in submitting an application to participate in the CSWG. This application is also available on the DDPHE website at <http://denvergov.org/cannabissustainability>.
