DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This class is the fourth level in the Deputy Sheriff class series. The series consists of Deputy Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Sergeant, Deputy Sheriff Captain, Deputy Sheriff Major, and Deputy Sheriff Division Chief. This class is distinguished from the Deputy Sheriff Captain class that provides second level supervisory protective services work directing subordinate supervisors on an assigned shift or in a specialized unit in the Denver Sheriff Department. The Deputy Sheriff Major class is distinguished from the Deputy Sheriff Division Chief class that directs and manages an operational and/or functional area in the Denver Sheriff Department by developing objectives while implementing strategies, managing plans, programs, and projects for the Sheriff Department, and directing operations and support services at Denver County Jail, the Pre-Arraignment Detention Facility/Court Services, and Administration/Training. Additionally, the Deputy Sheriff Major class performs a combination of tactical/operational management and supervisory duties and responsibilities; however, the duties and responsibilities are predominately managerial in nature.

Guidelines, Difficulty and Decision Making Level:

Guidelines are in the form of stated vision and objectives for the division or agency.

Work assignment is unstructured and employee is responsible for implementing and managing a variety of objectives, resources, and strategies to achieve the goals of the division or agency. Duties performed include operational and organizational planning, developing standards, schedules, priorities, guidelines, processes, and measurement (evaluation) systems, implementation of production and performance management standards, and allocating resources.

Employee is responsible for implementing operational goals and objectives and for the management of a range of complex divisions and/or city wide responsibilities and overall functions in which several projects and programs may be in progress with simultaneous, multiple resource involvement. Develops solutions to organizational and operational problems, responsible for organizational management (development, staffing, and conflict), and allocating resources.
Level of Supervision Received and Quality Review:

Under managerial direction, the employee has personal accountability for carrying out the work objectives of an organizational unit or section within the scope of established guidelines and the mission of the agency or department. Employee is expected to resolve problems that arise in the normal course of the work. Work may be discussed with higher level supervisors and reviewed for soundness of judgment and feasibility of decisions.

Interpersonal Communications and Purpose:

Contacts of a non-prescribed nature involving the negotiation and resolution of non-routine problems encountered and where exceptional degrees of discretion, judgment, and knowledge are required. Contacts where the exchange of information, support, influence, and cooperation may have a very significant impact on the division, programs, and/or policies of the organization.

Level of Supervision Exercised:

Supervises two or more Deputy Sheriff Captains.
