Instructions for Notice of Intent to Redeem

Redemptions take place only after a property has been sold at a foreclosure auction and is primarily a mechanism for junior lien holders. Please bring the appropriate documentation and payment to our offices, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. We are at 201 W. Colfax Ave., Dept. 101.

HOA Redemptions

Homeowner associations redeeming a property must provide:

- a completed Intent to Redeem form
- certified copy of the Declaration of Covenants (required by state statute and may be returned to the association upon request after it has been recorded in the Public Trustee Office)
- $50 redemption fee - cash or check (certified check not necessary)
- a signed, notarized statement confirming that the amount claimed as the portion of the lien used to redeem does not include an amount equal to the first six months of dues that would have been due immediately prior to the acceleration of the loan

Turn in all of the above to the Public Trustee by the deadline.

All Other Redemptions

Intent to Redeem forms must be:

- accompanied by the lien being used to redeem the property
- filled out and notarized
- accompanied by a $50 redemption fee - cash or check (certified check not necessary)

Turn in all of the above to the Public Trustee by the deadline.
