What is Denver Moves Pedestrians & Trails?

A plan for creating a walkable Denver and creating a world-class trails network in Denver.
Denver Moves

Bicycles  Pedestrians & Trails  Transit

Denverright.  Denver Moves: Pedestrians & Trails
DENVER
THE MILE HIGH CITY
Fall 2017 Update
Sidewalks in Denver

Existing

Too narrow

<4 ft.

Missing
Sidewalks in Denver

Streets with

- Existing sidewalks — 60%
- Too narrow sidewalks — 30%
- Missing sidewalks — 10%
Trails in Denver

Many neighborhoods don’t have access to trails.

And, many trails are too narrow or don’t connect to on-street bikeways.
Projects for People Walking

Sidewalks

Crosswalks

Pedestrian Bridges

Image: denver.streetblog.org
Trails Projects

Paved Trails – New and Upgrades to Existing

Singletrack Trails

Connections and Crossings
Draft Pedestrian Priorities

Start with:

• Missing sidewalks
• Sidewalks near transit
• Sidewalks near schools
Draft Trails Priorities

Start with:

• New trails
• Widening of trails that are much too narrow
• New or improved connections to on-street bikeways
2017 GO Bond

• General Obligation Bond
• Presenting for authorization November 2017
• $31 million citywide for sidewalks
• Other pedestrian projects
• Trails projects
Questions & Answers

Thank you.
www.denveright.com