

Fact Sheet – Denver at Level Red on the State's Dial

Updated: 11.19.2020

Overview

- New “Red Level” restrictions take effect at 5 p.m. Friday, Nov. 20.
- The State will re-evaluate Denver’s metrics and status on the dial the week ending Dec. 18.
- No personal gatherings except with people from the same household

Restaurants, Liquor Stores and Recreational Marijuana

- Indoor dining is temporarily closed
- Outdoor/open-air dining remains open for tables from the same household
- Last call for outdoor restaurant alcohol service is 8 p.m.
- On-premises alcohol consumption at restaurants and bars must stop at 10 p.m.
- Alcohol takeout and delivery closes by 10 p.m.
- Liquor store sales and delivery closes by 10 p.m.
- Recreational marijuana remains open until 10 p.m.

Retail and Offices

- Critical and non-critical retail, including indoor malls, are limited to 50 percent occupancy
- Offices are limited to 10 percent occupancy

Gyms, Fitness Centers and Yoga Studios

- Gyms and fitness facilities are limited to 10 percent occupancy, 10 people per room, or outdoors in groups less than 10. Reservations are required.

Sporting Events

- No spectators at high and college athletic events
- Adult and youth recreational sports are banned

Houses of Worship

- Level Red same as Orange for life rites: 25 percent occupancy or 50 people per room

Events & Venues

- Indoor events banned
- Outdoor events are limited to 25 percent occupancy or 75 people

Enforcement

- If the City issues citations, penalties can carry up to a $999 fine or 300 days in jail.